NAZIS CLAIM GAINS WEST OF STALINGRAD

New Offensive in the Solomons Under Way

Germans Pay Large Toll in Drive On Great Volga City

BY ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

The German storm beat more fiercely around Stalingrad in a thunderous melee of tanks, planes and struggling masses of men today, and the Berlin radio asserted that Nazi vanguards had driven to the great Volga steel city itself.

Soviet headquarters acknowledged that Field Marshal Fedor von Bock's incessant power drives had overrun two more villages west of the city, but dispatches said the Red armies, "fully conscious of the danger hanging over Stalingrad, are defending every inch of their dear land."

At mid-day, the Russian command declared Soviet troops had stiffened again in fighting that raged throughout the night and were exacting a deadly toll on the Germans.

London, Sept. 10.—(P)—Steeplechases were banned by the ministry of home security as a measure for further economy in feed and to eliminate unnecessary travel to meets.

London, Sept. 10.—(P)—Prime Minister Churchill told the house of commons that a bill to prolong the life of the present parliament would be presented today.

London, Sept. 10.—(P)—Eight Netherlands accused of printing and distributing calls for sabotage of German war industry in Holland have been sentenced to death by a German high court in Utrecht, it was reported today through Aneta, Dutch news agency.

BUDAPEST IS ATTACKED BY RED BOMBERS

Soviet Air Force Visits Hungarian Capital and Eastern Germany During Night

BERLIN IS A TARGET

London, Sept. 10.—(P)—The Russian air force kept the Allied aerial offensive in Europe rolling last night by bombing eastern Germany and the Hungarian capital of Budapest during a lull in RAF operations—presumably caused by unfavorable weather in the west.

(DNE official German news agency, said Russian planes "flew over the outskirts of greater Berlin last night but they did not drop any bombs in the center of the city.")

The high command communique reported that Russian bombers "carried out harassing flights" over eastern Germany.

The communique did not name any of the towns attacked. Earlier, however, Berlin broadcasts said Budapest was attacked by the Russian air force for the second time in the war. Other German broadcasts said the raiders were British. Radio stations in Berlin, Prague, Bratislava and elsewhere (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Reserve Men Facing Call Into Service

Washington, Sept. 10.—(P)—Secretary of War Stimson served notice today that college students who are members of the army enlisted reserve face a call to active military duty as soon as they reach the minimum legal age for service—now 20 years—because of increasing war demands for manpower.

When the reserve was created, students were told the war department policy was to permit them to complete their college courses, if possible.

"The exigencies of the war have now become such," Stimson told his press conference, "that it is now expected that by the end of the college term, or semester beginning in September, those student members of the reserve who have now reached selective service age will all, or for the most part, be called to active duty and those reaching that age during subsequent terms will similarly be called."

Stimson also announced that several thousand members of reg-

Pay Increases For Britain's Armed Forces

London, Sept. 10.—(P)—Sir Stafford Cripps announced increases today in the basic pay of British armed forces at an annual cost of $43,000,000 ($172,000,000) after the house of commons had heard the lament of an anonymous Tommy Atkins over his scale as compared with that of the United States Army.

The pay increase will be about 70 cents a week for all men in the armed services below commissioned ranks and about forty-five cents for women, Cripps said.

The government boosted about 20 cents a week the allowances for each of the soldiers' minor dependents. The first child now received (Turn to Page Thirteen)

WAR BULLETINS

Vichy, Sept. 10.—(P)—The British opened a general offensive against the west coast of Madagascar at dawn today, attacking the ports of Majunga and Morondava with planes and 18 warships, it was announced tonight.

Berlin (From German Broadcasts), Sept. 10.—(P)—Dispatches from Vichy said today that strong British forces attacked several harbors on Madagascar this morning after a landing attempt by General DeGaulle's French forces failed two days ago.

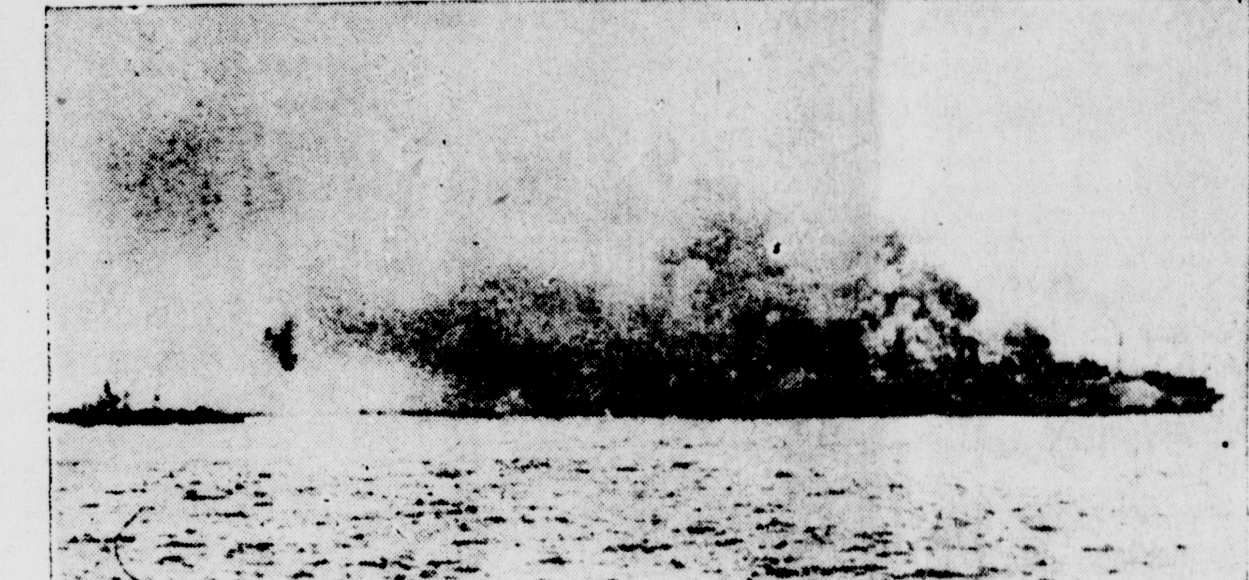

London, Sept. 10.—(P)—A Reuters dispatch from Moscow said today that Soviet guerrillas were penetrating deep into Norway through bogs and marsh and dense forests.

London, Sept. 10.—(P)—Reuters reported today from Lucknow, India, that a police inspector and a constable had been burned to death by a crowd of Indian demonstrators at Satad.

London, Sept. 10.—(P)—Fifty thousand packages of cigarettes, wrapped in red, white and blue packages and labelled "Victory is Coming" were dropped over The Netherlands by RAF planes the night of September 1, Aneta News Agency said today.

Giant U. S. Troop Transport Burns at Sea

Clouds of smoke roll up from the U. S. S. Wakefield, formerly the luxury liner Manhattan, as she burns at sea. The Wakefield was nearing the U. Newsmen Await Story From State Department

Washington, Sept. 10.—(P)—Newspapermen were called to the state department at 1 a. m. (Eastern War Time) today for a story of undisclosed nature which still had not been released hours later.

Department officials cautioned against over-estimating the importance of what was forthcoming but would give no hint of its nature or the reasons for the delay.

Fifth Column Is Blamed For Indian Rioting

Churchill Informs Commons Jap Activity Responsible For Uprising

BANS VOTE PROPOSAL

London, Sept. 10.—(P)—Prime Minister Churchill charged today that widespread Japanese fifth column activity may have been behind the All-India Congress party's drive for immediate independence, but he told the house of commons that the course of events in India had been improving "and is, on the whole, reassuring."

Churchill rejected a proposal for a vote to show whether the house approved his statement but suggested that a full-dress debate with a vote might be arranged later.

He minimized the influence of the congress, which he accused of discharging Mohandas K. Gandhi's non-violence principles, and declared that 90,000,000 Moslems were "fundamentally opposed" to it, to which a member cried "non-sense."

As a measure of the Congress' influence, Churchill mentioned that more than 1,000,000 Indians have volunteered for war service and that 40,000 volunteers in the past two months made an enlistment record.

When he finished, Emanuel Shinwell, a chronic Laborite critic of the government, told the house that Churchill's statement would profoundly disappoint and shock millions of people. (Turn to Page Thirteen)

State Newspapers Tackle Job Of Helping Salvage Campaign

Collection Goal of 3,000,000 Tons of Scrap Metal By January Announced

PUBLISHERS MEET

Harrisburg, Sept. 10.—(P)—Pennsylvania newspapers today tackled the job of helping state salvage officials reach a collection goal of 3,000,000 tons of scrap metal before Jan. 1.

Declaring newspaper cooperation "would help immeasurably," Colley S. Baker, secretary of the state salvage committee, said after a meeting with 30 members of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association that all "voted unanimously to cooperate with us."

The meeting was held here after the American Newspaper Publishers' Association was asked by the federal government to help collect 17,000,000 tons of scrap, needed in the war effort.

After Baker explained the salvage campaign, (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Restrictions Protect War Plant Areas

New York, Sept. 10.—(P)—The Eastern Defense Command, in a new move to combat possible sabotage in the industrial east, laid down strict regulations today covering newly-created "prohibition zones" around war plants and military establishments, many in Pennsylvania.

Lieut. Gen. Hugh A. Drum designated 1,136 prohibited or restricted areas but publicly defined only 231. Of these, 17 were in Pennsylvania. Locations of those not announced will be shown only by signs along their boundaries.

Drum's proclamation placed restrictions on the right of any person to enter, remain in or leave the eastern military area, covering 16 states.

The order required special individual permits for any persons entering prohibited zones. It prevented persons entering the zones from carrying firearms, explosives, short-wave radio sets, cameras, signal services, binoculars or other visual aids.

Pennsylvania installations announced as prohibited included the Keystone Ordnance Works, Crawford county.

Jersey Parolees Are Making Good Soldiers

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 10.—(P)—Four hundred young New Jersey parolees have been transformed into fighting men for Uncle Sam, as some have played hero roles on land and sea.

One died on Bataan, five were torpedoed but lived to put to sea again.

Release of the parolees, who had been sentenced to reformatories or detention homes, began two years before the New Jersey court of pardons last week paroled 31 first offender volunteers from the state prison on condition that some branch of the armed forces accept them.

Demand Made By President Stirs Leaders

Numerous Senators Prepared to Insist on Full Discussion of All Points

SHOWDOWN POSSIBLE

Washington, Sept. 10.—(P)—Rising congressional sentiment for a concrete wage formula and a new basis for farm parity prices today complicated the problems of administration leaders trying to meet President Roosevelt's October 1 deadline on legislation to hold down the cost of living.

Despite Senate Majority Leader Barkley's word that he hoped to pass the bill in the next three weeks, it was clear that numerous senators were prepared to insist on (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Secrecy Veils Spy Inquiry

Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—(P)—In strict secrecy and with the protection of armed guards, a special blue ribbon grand jury continued investigations of alleged spy activities in eastern Pennsylvania today after questioning seven witnesses yesterday.

Voluntary censorship of news concerning the inquiry was urged upon newspapers by Federal Judge George A. Welsh, who told reporters that "in times like these publication of information going to the grand jury might do a great deal of harm."

U. S. District Attorney Gerald A. Gleason said the names of witnesses should be suppressed because many have relatives in Europe subject to possible reprisals.

Gleason ordered the probe, which will cover German, Italian and Japanese alien activities, when the Federal Bureau of Investigation said it was unable to do the work thoroughly because of legal restrictions.

REPORT MADE BY PROBERS FAR-REACHING

Suggestions To Be Put Into Effect 'As Rapidly As Arrangements Can Be Made' Roosevelt Says

35 MILE SPEED LIMIT

Washington, Sept. 10.—(P)—President Roosevelt said today he would put into effect "as rapidly as arrangements can be made" a set of recommendations from his special rubber committee which included nationwide gasoline rationing and drastic restrictions on civilian motoring.

He praised the committee's far-reaching report as "excellent" and said the government owed a debt of gratitude to the committee members. He transmitted copies to congress for its information.

The committee submitted its report to the chief executive with a blunt declaration that there was no middle course in solving the nation's rubber problem, that it was "discomfort or defeat."

In addition to recommending an expansion of the present synthetic rubber production program from an annual total now of 705,000 tons to a contemplated figure of 1,100,000, the committee proposed these additional steps:

1. That no speed above 35 miles an hour be permitted for passenger cars and trucks, so as to prolong the life of tires by nearly 40 per cent.

Double-Time On Special Days Banned

Washington, Sept. 10.—(P)—Payment of double-time rates for work on any particular day in the week such as Saturday, Sunday or holidays was discontinued today by a presidential order.

The decree, signed by President Roosevelt yesterday, was intended, the White House said, to encourage one day of rest in seven "in the interests of efficiency."

Double-time payment for work on a seventh consecutive day still is permissible under the order but not because it happens to fall on a weekend or holiday. Thus the days of the week lost their identity for wage-determining purposes.

The White House did not disclose what specific emergency signing the president employed in signing the order. It was announced, however, that it was in accord with pledges given Mr. Roosevelt several months ago by William Green, AFL president, and Philip Murray, CIO president.

The announcement also explained that the elimination of double-time pay for particular days makes the practice universal as "many unions already have modified their contracts to put this pledge into effect."

The decree did not affect the wage hour act provision allowing payment for work over 40 hours a week at the rate of time and a half.

AWARDED "E"

Pittsburgh, Sept. 10.—(P)—The United Steel Castings division of the Elmer-Knox Company was notified it had been awarded an Army-Navy "E" pennant for excellence in war production.

Thirty Scheduled To Depart Saturday For Army Center

Thirty men who two weeks ago passed final physical examinations in Erie for induction into the armed services have been notified by Local Draft Board No. 1 to report at the Pennsylvania depot Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock from where they will leave for their army reception center on the eastbound train at 9:13 a. m. it was announced today.

At the same time, an announcement was made by Local Draft Board No. 2 that a group of 30 selectees have also been notified to report at 8:30 o'clock on Monday morning to leave on a train

Little Rock Sets An Example For Warren

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 10.—(P)—The martial atmosphere of MacArthur Park, birthplace of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, dropped today as Camp Robinson soldiers stripped the park of its Civil and Spanish American war cannon, howitzers and mortars for scrap metal.

The weapons were donated to the scrap metal drive by the Little Rock City council.

Even the small howitzer in front of the old arsenal building in which MacArthur was born was ripped from its brick pedestal and carted away.

Total of 25 Jap Warships Claimed Sunk

Review of Communiques From MacArthur Shows Many Planes Destroyed

NO REPORT ON ALLIES

Melbourne, Sept. 10.—(P)—Allied forces have definitely sunk 25 Japanese warships and transports and destroyed 300 enemy planes and perhaps 500 in less than five months, a review of communiques from Gen. MacArthur's headquarters disclosed today.

Forty-one additional warships and transports were damaged, and a total of 177 enemy planes severely damaged or "probably damaged," making the total toll 477.

The real total of enemy airplanes, it was believed, probably exceeds 500 planes since on many occasions when bombs were dropped on parked aircraft there was no means of determining the exact results.

Of the 300 aircraft definitely reported 292 were fighters, 60 bombers, 11 float planes, seven flying boats, and 11 were of unspecified types. They were destroyed either in combat, by anti-aircraft fire, or by bombing of enemy air bases.

Allied plane losses for the same period cannot be given with any degree of accuracy because many of the early communiques issued by the Southwest Pacific Command (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Raiders Hold Two Captains

By the Associated Press

The torpedoing of two more ships—an American merchantman and a Polish cargo carrier, both attacked off the South American coast—as reported by the Associated Press count of announced western Atlantic sinkings since America's entry into the war.

The captains of both ships were taken prisoner aboard the raiders, the navy disclosed, boosting to nine the number of merchant ship commanders reported held by Axis subs following destruction of their craft.

Both the skipper and chief engineer of the American ship were taken prisoner, and another man was missing, but 50 others abandoned the vessel in a single lifeboat and landed on the west coast of Africa, making their way to Capetown whence they sailed for the United States.

JAP ADVANCE IS ADMITTED BY M'ARTHUR

Nipponese Fight Way Across Summit of Owen Stanley Mountains In New Guinea

NEARING PORT MORESBY

Washington, Sept. 10.—(P)—A new Japanese offensive to drive the Japanese out of the Solomons Islands apparently was underway today—launched by an aerial assault on enemy troops and installations at Giza island.

With the U. S.-captured base on Guadalcanal, 215 miles to the southeast, evidently the springboard for the attack, American air forces bombed and strafed the small, heavily wooded island, the navy department announced last night.

The attack was carried out last Sunday without enemy resistance, the navy said, as the marines continued to map up Japanese units which had fled to Guadalcanal jungles at the first American landing more than a month ago.

Chief significance of the American blow at Giza was regarded as indication of a new phase of offensive activity in the strategic Pacific islands and evidence that the American forces had consolidated their positions in the southeastern Solomons.

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia, Sept. 10.—(P)—By a series of outflanking movements, Japanese troops have fought their way across the summit of the rugged Owen Stanley mountains in New Guinea and are pushing down the southern slopes within 44 miles of Port Moresby, General MacArthur's headquarters announced today.

Australian forces, the announcement said, were pushing them back. (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Willkie Is Welcomed By Turk Official

Ankara, Turkey, Sept. 10.—(P)—Flanked by an honorary police guard, Wendell L. Willkie placed a wreath today on the tomb of Kamal Ataturk, first president of the Turkish republic, while a fair-sized crowd looked on.

Willkie was accompanied by U. S. Ambassador Laurence A. Steinhardt.

Willkie said after conferences yesterday that he had informed Turkish Foreign Minister Numan Menemcioglu of the United States' program for victory and of the basic Allied plan for the post-war peace.

He said he and the foreign minister reviewed Turkish and United States relations, which he described as of the highest standing, and discussed Turkey's relations with other Allied countries including Russia.

Berlin (From German Broadcasts) Sept. 10.—(P)—A DNE dispatch from Istanbul today said the Turkish Premier Suat Cavid Cagaloglu returned to the capital last night and received Wendell Willkie, President Roosevelt's personal emissary, at 10:30 p. m. The conversation lasted about an hour.

(Predicting last Sunday that Willkie would be given the "cold shoulder" in Turkey, DNE said Suat Cagaloglu would not return to the capital from East Anatolia to receive the United States visitor.)

Story of Typical Jap Bravery Is Related

Los Angeles, Sept. 10.—(P)—Lieut. John Paul Adams, a navy flier of White Cloud, Kas, tells this story of "typical Japanese bravery."

A single American flier in Adams' squadron, Lieut. Bill Leonard, (address unavailable) was attacked by three Jap fighter seaplanes during the recent battle of Tulagi in the Solomons. The wings of his plane were riddled before Leonard got one Jap with a burst of fire that exploded the enemy plane. Five minutes later Leonard got the second Jap, whereupon the third enemy pilot hastily landed on the water, crawled out on a pontoon and brought out a white flag.

Tribute Paid By Methodists To Deceased

The Rev. Emerson H. Jones, who was pastor at Clarendon at the time of his death, and Dr. Clarence E. Allen, of Ridgway, retired former pastor of First church here, were among Methodist ministers paid tribute in the annual memorial service of the Erie Conference sessions being held in Meadville this week.

Dr. A. C. Locke, of New Bethlehem, preached the memorial sermon, with Rev. Sherman Epler, of Dunkirk, N. Y., presiding. Four pastors were included, also widows of four ministers.

The sacramental service on Wednesday was led by Bishop James H. Straughn, assisted by the four district superintendents, all of whom are former Warren pastors: Dr. J. A. Galbraith, Jamestown, N. Y.; Dr. C. T. Greer, Meadville; Dr. L. M. Barnard, Brookville, and Dr. W. E. Bartlett, Grove City; together with Dr. William T. Tolley, of Allegheny College; Dr. Albert Marrett and Dr. James Cousins, pastors of Stone and Grace church of Meadville.

Dr. Frederick C. Henke, former Allegheny College faculty member and a ministerial member of the Erie Conference, was one of six requesting retirement at Wednesday's session. Dr. William P. Murray, of Titusville, former superintendent of the Meadville District, and Dr. W. J. Baldwin, former pastor of Grace church at Meadville, were among others requesting retired relations.

Last night was education night under the direction of R. E. Tidmarsh, of Meadville, executive secretary of the conference board of education, who presented as guest speaker Dr. Harry M. Taylor, Drew University, whose subject was "Christian Education."

This morning's business session received reports from the board of education, commission on evangelism and from the special committee of the conference claimants' fund.

Home Nursing Classes Open To Every Woman and Girl

The local Red Cross is organizing classes in home nursing in Warren borough and in outlying districts of the county and stresses particularly the home defense angle of this work. Classes are open to every woman and girl without charge and will be held mornings, afternoons or evenings to suit the convenience of the students. The course covers from 24 to 30 hours and includes demonstration and practice work.

Those on the home front are burdened with added responsibility and increased work because trained nurses are being called to service for their country and those instructed in preventive measures and in care of the sick are doubly valuable. In studying the health problems of their own families they are playing a vital part in lessening the duties of doctors and nurses.

The course teaches individual health and personal hygiene; healthful home environment, including care of the home for a normal family life; home care of the sick during minor illness; also care of the chronic and aged; care of the infant, pre-school and school child, and also of the prospective mother; and community health and preventive measures for the prevention and control of communicable diseases.

This class is not to be confused with the Nurses' Aid course also being offered by the Red Cross. That instruction is for hospital service; the home nursing course, instruction for nursing in the home.

Anyone interested in acquiring such valuable knowledge without expense is asked to call for further information at Red Cross headquarters, 404 Market street, or phone 2926. Classes will start as soon as sufficient enrollments have been received.

Specialists For Air Force Being Sought

The Veterans of Foreign Wars today were requested by the War Department to help enlist Air Force Specialists, men between 18 and 44 inclusive, who can qualify as mechanics, radiomen and technicians to keep army planes in action.

Commander Leo J. Schuler of V. F. W. Post No. 631 in Warren, said his organization will help recruit these men in conjunction with the V. F. W. Aviation Cadet Program.

Major General J. A. Ulio, of the adjutant general's office, told the V. F. W. that industrial production is out-distancing the army's ability to keep war planes in service. He said the army must secure quickly a large number of men who can qualify as aircraft, automotive and general mechanics, also armorers, gunsmiths, instrument makers, watch and clock makers, appliance servicemen, fitters, radio operators and technicians, welders and aircraft metalworkers.

General Ulio praised the V. F. W. national program preparing and enlisting army aviation cadets, 18 to 26. The local V. F. W. Aviation Cadet committee, aided by volunteer doctors and teachers, will continue this work and, in addition, help recruit air force specialists, 18 to 44.

Further details on these enlistments may be obtained from 631st V. F. W. Engineers, at 238 Pennsylvania avenue, west, Warren.

Men between 18 and 44 can "help keep 'em flying from the shops to Tokyo."

BOOST FOR LOCAL PLANT

Much information about the Struthers-Wells Corp., which will be new and interesting to readers will be found in the following reprinted from the Army-Navy "E" supplement of the Wednesday Titusville Herald:

Struthers-Wells' vast steel forging, fabricating, welding and engineering facilities, long experienced in the production of standard and special processing equipment for the chemical and related process industries, marine and diesel crankshaft forgings, steering gears, windlasses, capstans and winches and steel boilers of all types, are now completely devoted to the production of war materials and essential equipment necessary to war production.

In the words of Struthers-Wells officials, "We are unreservedly pledged to a 'Win the War Program'... our 'all-out' effort is being expended in but one direction... to produce the absolute maximum in the shortest possible time and to devote every ton of our capacity to America's most vital war needs."

Peacetime production equipment and facilities of the company included forging presses up to 2,000 tons in size, lathes 100 feet long, 172 welding machines and 3 complete machine shops. In those "gone-but-not-forgotten" days before the war, the entire facilities of Struthers-Wells were devoted to the producing of standard and special processing equipment for the metallurgical industry; manufacture of oils, fats and soap; paint, varnish and lacquer industries; by-product, coke and gas industries; processing of plastics and insulations; rubber industry; sugar industry; textile, bleaching and finishing industries; ice and refrigeration industry; paper and pulp industries; and fire and water tube boilers for both heating and power.

Information on today's war-time facilities and production are, of course, of a military nature, and are therefore confidential.

The column in the Times-Mirror, "Our Men In Service," has come to be the most interesting and widely-read department of the paper. Items for the column are cordially solicited, but readers are reminded that it is not always possible to print them the day they are received. In this connection it has been suggested that a good way to keep friends and relatives in the service informed about their buddies would be to clip the column daily and when writing them include clippings in the letter.

Women between the ages of 20 to 26 inclusive, with high school education, single or married (if husband is not in service) should be interested in an announcement appearing elsewhere in this issue stating that applications for enlistment in the Navy Waves are now being received. If interested call at headquarters of the 631st Engineers, 238 Pennsylvania avenue, west. It would seem as if Warren county could provide some recruits for this interesting branch of the service.

The Brokenstraw Fish and Game Club deserves a word of commendation for the recent placing of a large number of cans of fingerling trout in streams of that vicinity. It will help the morale of the nation to make certain that the game fish of the country is maintained, not only for those who must remain at home but for the boys when they return after the Nazis and Japs have been vanquished.

The Blue and White football team will play the second home game of the season at Russell Field Saturday afternoon, with Girard High furnishing the opposition and from what fans witnessed in the contest last Monday, the event may be recommended as furnishing an afternoon of genuine sport for lovers of the game.

A couple hours of musical entertainment are promised citizens of Warren and vicinity Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, when the Veterans of Foreign Wars band will play a concert from the Hickory street veranda of the Elks' Club. It is a foregone conclusion that there will be a large crowd on hand to enjoy the program.

The community in general unites with the congregation of the United Brethren church in extending a warm welcome to the pastor, Rev. William G. Woodard, returned to the local charge for another year at the recent conference.

Today's dispatches indicate the battle of Stalingrad is rushing towards its climax under a weight of arms probably never involved in the siege of a single city, and with a ferocity which marks it as one of the bloodiest combats of all time.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JOHN GROVER

(For Jack Stinnett, On Vacation)

WASHINGTON — There's bad news on the horizon for willful violators of retail price ceilings and gas, tire and other rationing orders.

Up to now, the Office of Price Administration has concentrated on educational measures, to acquaint merchants and the public with the regulations. "School days" are over now, however, and the warning is out that crackdowns are in order.

Rationing has brought the bootlegger of prohibition days back into circulation, recent surveys indicate. Prosecutions for violation of the rubber tire rationing order disclosed highly-organized rings of tire peddlers.

ONE such organization sold illegally acquired tires to its salesmen at a flat rate—about double the market price—and the salesmen, in turn, sold to their customers. The salesmen got "all the traffic would bear" for the illicit merchandise. It was this price-gouging that finally resulted in breaking up the ring. Customers were willing to break the law to get the tires but squawked at the fantastic prices.

It is the general feeling of OPA enforcement officers that the wartime bootlegger of rationed goods will be easier to trap and convict than his prohibition era counterpart.

THE prohibition law was thoroughly unpopular with a great many people. It was often difficult to expand a jury that would convict a booze peddler. Customers of an alcohol merchant in those times not only did not snitch on their favorite bootlegger but were extremely reluctant to give officers useful information.

The situation is considerably different now. The general public is convinced of the necessity of rubber, sugar and gas rationing. It's generally known that the measures are necessary to the war effort, and there is evidence that the public isn't winking at violations.

FURTHERMORE, that price element is certain to be the jinx of the 1942 bootlegger. Without organized buying power, the bootlegger himself must pay normal prices for the goods he intends to retail, and in consequence of the risk involved, jacks up the price.

The customer who pays two or three times the value of a tire is generally burned up and ready to spill the whole story to enforcement officials.

Enforcement of the gasoline regulations in the rationed areas is generally considered satisfactory. The first ration card system was full of loopholes and there was widespread violation. The present system, which requires a garage man to show coupons for all gas sold before being able to replenish his stock, pretty well eliminates giving favored customers extra gas.

Enforcement of the gas rationing order will be pretty nearly perfect when a checkup of unlimited commercial coupons is completed. There have been instances where unlimited coupon holders sold whole pages of coupons to unscrupulous service station men, who then had gas to take care of favorite customers at above-market prices.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Theatrical item: "Harry Kaufman has added the three Ross sisters to the cast of 'Count Me In,' starring Charles Butterworth. The Ross sisters are acrobats who live in a trailer with their parents."

Note: Mama and Papa Ross were dirt farmers from west Texas. They were never in the theater and knew nothing whatever about show business. Few shows ever touched their immediate neighborhood.

However, Mr. and Mrs. Ross were very athletic, and frequently put on the gloves to box with each other. Naturally they wanted the girls—Dixie, Betsy, and Vicki—to be strong, and they encouraged their acrobatics.

WHEN the dust storms drove the Rosses off the land, Mr. Ross went to work in the oil fields of west Texas and occasionally he secured employment in Mexican oil fields across the border.

The girls, meanwhile, continued their acrobatics. They grew proficient and eventually began exhibiting their skill in country fairs. Somehow they obtained a job in a theater and toured the fairs and clubs of the midwest. The girls, one day, decided to pool their savings and purchase a trailer. This they did and they still live in it.

This trailer is parked at Ray Guy's Trailer Park, Bergen Boulevard, which is about a mile across the George Washington bridge, on Route 6 in New Jersey. They spend their mornings in and around the trailer camp, and rehearse at a Broadway theater all afternoon.

Yes, they're thrilled about their first trip to New York.

"But," says Betsy, who is 20 and the eldest, "we certainly aren't going to give up our trailer until we are sure of the future."

NO POPULAR band can make a big money until it has three important takes—it's got to have a commercial program; it's got to make money from a backlog of records; it has to make money from one-nighters and theatrical engagements. If you can get 'em coming all three at once, say, as Kay Kyser has, you're in. But when you read of this band or that being "The nation's Number One," etc., look around and see what commercial they're on, if any; if you can't find them there, write the whole thing off as a press-agent's story.

For instance, here's a blurb in today's mail about a band that is pretty hot right now. Nobody knows whether it is going to be a one-season sensation or not. The blurb says, "Today this band has passed Glenn Miller and the rest of them, rating as the Country's Number 1 band not only in musicianship and public acclaim, but in the more substantially proven form of actual financial returns. This band has actually broken the all-time record on every location it's played so far this year."

Bunk! This band had a nice record at Meadowbrook until Kay Kyser beat it all to pieces. Blurbs like this alienate people and does a band more harm than good.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Set-seeing: Comes the revolution. Time stops in its tracks. Nothing is the same. Andy Hardy is talking back to the judge.

For five years now, picture after picture, Mickey Rooney and Lewis Stone have shared those man-to-man talks. It's in "Andy Hardy's Last Fling"—and don't believe that title as long as the family series makes money—that it happens.

Andy is off to college, and the judge, an alumnus, wants to make the trip with him, introduce him to the dean. Andy knows that his college career will be "ruined" if the other boys see him being so sponsored, but he knows also that his father will be disappointed not to go.

SAYS Andy to the judge, "We've made a kind of habit of man-to-man talks, haven't we?"

"They've meant a great deal to me, Andy," says the judge.

Andy: "But they weren't really man-to-man talks. They were just a kid trying to hide that he only had a kid's troubles, but pretending he was grown up and trying to make it all seem important."

Then he goes on to say that this must be the real thing—man to man—and from then on Andy does all the talking.

After the scene Mickey Rooney mops his brow, turns to Stone, and says: "Gee, I didn't know whether I could get away with that or not. Me! Telling you! It just doesn't seem right!"

THE set of "Watch on the Rhine" is minus its star, Paul Lukas, and its principal supporting player, Bette Davis. Bette will be starring in the role of Paul's. He played it for 11 months on Broadway, thus reviving movie interest in him. Bette chose the assignment, beginning work even before "Now, Voyager" was completed, just to get in her swat at the Nazis. The picture, like the play, is one of the most emotional and strongest of the anti-Nazi line, and at the same time one of the quietest.

If Paul and Bette are absent, an unforgettable character is decidedly present. George Coulouris. He's the villain.

George was the villain in the play, too, which makes Hollywood seem sort of quiet by contrast. Night after night, those 11 months and four more on the road, George got booed. Lukas and the others would get applause on the curtain calls, but George got only hisses.

"I guess it was a compliment, since I'm supposed to be a bad actor," he says. "But a man gets tired of hisses every night."

He figures, in compensation, that his villain will be remembered—as villains usually are. He wonders if movie audiences will boo, too. They may, he admits. But he won't be there, and he's glad of it.

District Director Of Auxiliary Coming To Install Officers

At the regular business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary reports of the state convention in Pittsburgh were given by the delegates, Mrs. C. D. Cannon and Mrs. Melvin Johnson.

They stated that Mrs. Archie Miller, of New Cumberland, who has been department child health chairman for three years, was chosen state president, and Mrs. A. Bruce Denniston, of Greenville, as western vice president, succeeding Mrs. Robert Russell, of Custer City.

Mrs. C. A. Atkinson, of Freeport, was elected director of this district and will visit Warren on Tuesday, October 13, to install newly elected officers of this unit.

The report of Mrs. Harrison Smith, of Philadelphia, the retiring president, was also reviewed, showing a state membership of 48,264 members, 2,755 more than any previous record. She said, also, that a total of $3,308 was spent for rehabilitation work and $16,000 for child welfare work in Pennsylvania in the year.

The local organization voted to sponsor a Merchandise Club through the Metzger-Wright store, with representatives on the second floor to accept registrations for the club starting September 21. Anyone desiring more information concerning the project was asked to call 150-W or 605-R.

A report on sales of war stamps and bonds at local theatres was given and it was voted to purchase a new flag for the East Street school.

The next meeting of the local auxiliary will be in the form of a luncheon dinner on September 22 when all World War mothers and auxiliary members having sons in the service will be invited. Gold Star mothers will be special guests.

Zontians Planning Regional Sessions Here October 17-18

Every member of the Warren Zonta Club is asked to be in attendance at the dinner to be held at 6:30 p. m. Saturday in the Y. W. C. A. activities building, when final plans are to be made for entertainment of the fall conference of Region A, District 3, in October.

Guests of the local club Saturday night will be Miss Isabelle Brugge, of Jamestown, N. Y., who heads District 3, and Mrs. Marjorie Hamilton, of Rochester, N. Y., chairman of Region A. Both have had a great deal of experience in conference planning and management and their assistance to local committees should prove invaluable.

Mrs. Jesse Davidson, local president, will appoint on Saturday night her full committees for the conference, dates of which have been set for October 17-18.

In addition, Mrs. Davidson has called a meeting of the executive board at her home on Water street this evening to outline details of the plans.

It is anticipated that a number of outstanding members and officers of Zonta International will be here for the October sessions and the local club is honored in its choice as hostess.

Warren Plant In Spotlight At Awarding of Army-Navy 'E'

The Titusville Herald on Wednesday published a six-page supplement publicizing the awarding to employees of the Struthers-Wells Corporation of the Army-Navy "E," which took place there yesterday noon with a large number of Warren citizens in attendance. From the very elaborate supplement we reprint the following story which contains much of interest to Warren readers:

A year after the merging of the Iron Works and Forge Works with the Struthers-Wells Corp., came the financial crash of late 1929, followed by the worst depression in the history of the country. The new corporation was able to keep abreast, however, and under the presidency of John T. Dillon, Jr., has been developed into one of the largest concerns of the kind in the steel industry.

The corporation has three plants: Struthers-Wells factory, established in Warren in 1845; Titusville Iron Works, founded in 1860, and Titusville Forge Works, founded in 1897. Collectively, these three divisions occupy more than 21 acres of land and the plants have more than a half million square feet of floor space. The plants have forging presses up to 2,000 tons, which will press ingots weighing up to 65 tons, and bending rolls which will handle plate up to 40 feet and with thickness of 3½ inches.

In the early 1900's the Warren plant became a large and important factor in the development of gas and electric welding and pioneered in building welded railroad tank cars. Today this plant manufactures pressure vessels, heat exchangers, stainless steel equipment, fractionating towers, rotary dryers and many other products. As noted elsewhere, the Iron Works pioneered in steam boilers and gas engines as well as other oil field equipment, and the Forge Works makes heavy forgings for steamships and other uses.

For the past three years all three plants have been engaged chiefly on government war contracts and are being operated 24 hours daily, seven days a week, with more than 2,400 employed in the two Titusville plants.

"Much credit is due to Mr. Dillon for the success of the Struthers-Wells Corporation," said Mr. Borne. "More than five years ago Mr. Dillon foresaw from conditions in Europe that a world war was imminent, and while he probably did not think the United States would be so soon involved, he sensed there would be a great demand for war materials."

Mr. Dillon made many trips to Washington and explained to Army and Navy officials that the Titusville plants were equipped for "preparedness" work, and ultimately the company was awarded contracts for the windlasses and capstans for the two large battleships, the North Carolina and Washington. This contract was completed ahead of time, and as conditions in Europe became worse

LIST OF OFFICERS OF STRUTHERS WELLS CORP.
(Titusville Herald)
Officers of the Struthers Wells Corporation are:
President, J. T. Dillon, Jr.; vice president, H. W. Conarro; treasurer, H. H. Crosby; secretary, A. H. Engdahl; chairman of the executive committee, E. D. Wetmore; chief counsel, R. W. Smith. Assistant treasurer G. O. Gondree; assistant secretaries, J. F. Sweeney, R. M. Walsh, W. E. Peel; controller, D. P. Edwards.

and finally England entered the war, then government contracts began coming steadily to the Struthers-Wells Corp. and they are now recognized as one of the leading manufacturers of deck auxiliaries.

Mr. Dillon, in the meantime, was able to secure needed machinery from plants inoperative in New England and through prompt installation, the Titusville Iron and Forge Works were in position to meet government orders more promptly than most plants in other parts of the country.

The world developments came so rapidly that government contracts also began to increase to the Struthers-Wells Corp. and this meant plant expansion to meet the demand. Large additions were constructed at both Titusville plants, even to occupy the former Tannery Lot on South Perry street. More office room was also needed and a new building for the Forge Works was erected on East Central avenue.

In order to assist the company in every way possible, the city council directed the closing of several streets to the uses of the company. With more than 2,400 employees now in the Titusville plants and more expected, this city is experiencing the greatest industrial boom in its history. The influx of workers necessitated a Federal housing project, and virtually all available housing in the city and environs is now occupied and more will doubtless be needed. The increased population necessitated the erection of an addition to Colestock High school, which is now nearing completion.

Notwithstanding the great expansion in the operations of the Struthers-Wells Corp., President Dillon is meeting the situation successfully. Other officers of the corporation are H. W. Conarro of Warren, vice president and manager of the Warren plant, and H. H. Crosby of Warren, who succeeded J. W. Borne, retired, as treasurer several months ago. The corporation has an unusually large staff of experts in the executive offices, including G. O. Gondree, a former local resident who returned from the Buffalo offices to assume the duties of assistant to the president.

Everyone deprecates war and regrets that the world is embroiled in the conflict, but now that it has come, citizens of this community congratulate themselves that Titusville was ready to do its share for victory; that it had an industrial corporation capable of meeting the call and that it will be able to meet every reasonable demand the government may put upon it.

If you have an old car that vibrates badly try tightening the engine bolts. The result often is astonishing.

Donations Coming In To Help Finance Largest Picnic Ever Attempted In Warren County

The biggest picnic Warren ever had is well on its way to realization with the announcement this morning that solicitors are meeting with an overwhelmingly favorable and enthusiastic response from those who have been asked to donate to the cause. H. B. Pettit, chairman of the finance committee said: "The men who have so patriotically devoted their time to the raising of money for this vital Warren county enterprise are receiving encouraging support from nearly 100% of the business men they have called on. It was out idea to do this job on the blitz plan—that is, to complete it within two or three days—so that the general public committee will know just how far it can go in its preparations. It now seems, with the goal in sight, that we shall be able to realize our plan. While many subscriptions still are needed, it looks as if we shall reach the figure we set. Merchants and retail business men of all groups are cooperating splendidly." Mr. Pettit also paid glowing tribute to H. W. Conarro, chairman of the Industrial Committee, which reported its quota oversubscribed after only a few hours of solicitation.

Meanwhile, the special fund for prizes was also oversubscribed, according to B. S. Knabenshue, chairman of the Salvage Committee, who himself took charge of this solicitation.

Simultaneously plans for the actual event—a harvest picnic and scrap roundup to be held for the farmers of Warren county on Friday, September 25—were rapidly rounding into shape under the chairmanship of A. F. Kottcamp, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, who reports all his committees functioning smoothly and working hard.

Following are the committee chairmen in charge of the various phases of the big celebration: Music and entertainment, Ben Kinneary; seating and ground arrangements, Don Smith; sports and games, Paul Yagge; commissary, George Geracimos; refreshment stand, Merle Boutwell; cleanup, Donald C. Curtis; publicity, W. H. Wright.

As a special projects aide, Mr. Knabenshue announced the appointment of Wiley T. Corbett, effective immediately. In connection with the harvest picnic, it will be Mr. Corbett's responsibility to establish additional weigh stations, so that farmers will have only a short haul for their scrap. A list of weigh stations already selected was published in Tuesday's Times, and a list of the additional stations will be printed as soon as it is complete. In addition to his activities in connection with the picnic, Mr. Corbett will act as a "scout" for salvage of all kinds. It will be his duty to travel throughout the county and "spot" accumulations of scrap material in the form of buildings, machinery, or smaller items. It was emphasized by Mr. Knabenshue that, in cases where the owner of such scrap refuses to sell it at a fair price or to sell it at all, seizure by a U. S. marshal and forced sale will be resorted to.

A. A. Albaugh, special chairman for the harvest picnic, announced that Granges are already all-out for victory in the big roundup's goal of 500 tons of assorted scrap. Walter Ward is acting as head of the Grange groups. The Granges have chosen as their slogan, "Farmers Show Your Metal," and chairmen of committees within the Granges have already been chosen and are actively at work.

Prizes ranging from a $100 War Bond to a $25 War Bond will be awarded to the Grange turning in the greatest per capita amount of scrap. A $25 War Bond will be given to the individual turning in the largest amount. A door prize of a $25 Bond will be awarded to the holder of the lucky ticket at the picnic itself. Tickets may be secured by farmers for their families, together with weight sheets, at the time they weigh in their scrap at the various county weigh stations. Payment for the scrap will be made by the Salvage Committee through the Granges after all the scrap is concentrated and sold upon the basis of the individual weight sheets.

The urgent need for collecting every ounce of the farm scrap of Warren county—even though this is a busy season for farmers—was emphasized recently by an official who said, "The job must be done. Harvesting the corn is important. But so is harvesting the scrap—vital to the nation's war effort up to the farmers now." This statement was made in connection with the recent statement of Donald Nelson that steel mills are closing down all over the nation for lack of scrap to feed the converters. Warren county Grange officials believe the farmers of Warren county will respond unanimously to the desperate national need and will reach or exceed the quota set. One person expressed the belief that 1,000 tons of scrap would be forthcoming, "if"—as he said—"every farmer does his duty."

He's recuperating from an appendectomy which it was necessary to perform upon his famous carcass Tuesday evening... The area sports world, especially veterans of a decade or so back, are mourning the passing of John A. (Terry) Daley, of Erie, one-time favorite among baseball umpires... He died early this week... Defense workers' shifts and other hazards are telling this year when it comes to organizing bowling leagues... The advantage of an eight-alley house is more evident this season than it would have been last, because to wait ten days between matches... Late shifts are a quick shift and most nights a week may mean that a team is forced to wait ten days between matches... Deducts from interest, as does the fact that split bowling programs on different nights in a week for one league don't give keggers a chance to compare their scores with "rivals", which, after all, is half the fun of the popular indoor sport as far as community loops are concerned... Some sort of confusion was responsible last winter for the failure to have the Conewango Club alleys sanctioned, but they will be going along with the remainder of the town's bowling establishments again this year, as they have in the past.

This being the 50th anniversary of high school football in Warren, it seems only fitting that somewhere along the line a home game should be set aside for acknowledging the fact, and a big celebration is developing on the part of the Blue and White... What with the James-ton game here this year, one of the biggest football promotions in the past decade could unfold... What about making some plans right now?... It should be the job of cheerleaders and the high school band to cook up an offering of this sort... And fans will go for it... Well, at long last Billy Conn will have a second shot at Joe Louis and the heavyweight title come Columbus Day... And again, as we predicted in his first attempt to wrest the crown, we'll say Pittsburgh Billy will be the victor... Many fistful followers are of the opinion he won't come close this time... Considering that Louis is older, Conn a little less cocky, but still the finest boxer in the business, why shouldn't he show as well in the second meeting?... The fight should be a spectacle, being the first afternoon heavyweight title match since 1923... We've had word from Harold Brown, who's stationed at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, and also from Geary Bean, who has been transferred from New York to the Boston harbor... They left a month ago, and except for missing a host of friends hereabouts, reveal they love the service and there's nothing like the navy... If Warren shows improvement in defense at the ends against Girard Saturday, there's every reason to believe the Dragons can weather the remaining 10 games on their schedule without another defeat... May sound like we're stretching the point, but keep watching 'em.

Forge, Corry Game Results In Stalemate TO OUTLINE ALLEY PLANS AT MEETING

After everything had been so carefully planned, and the teams had taken the field last night before a sizeable crowd at Loveland Park, Corry, in an advertised Tri-County League championship game, the weatherman stepped in along about the sixth inning and called it off with the score knotted at 1-1.

The National Forge and Corry Merchants were battling along in a close ball game, Frankie Jack and Walt Brown, Forge and Corry hurlers respectively, being hooked up in an interesting pitchers' duel, but the rains came.

So, it was decided not to reschedule the tilt, and no championship for the league will be crowned as a result. The Forge hold a distinction of being district champions, sporting the best record in the area, 31 victories, four defeats, and one tie.

ZIVIC MEETS COCHRANE IN MIX TONIGHT

BY SID FEDER

New York, Sept. 10.—(P)—Simply off the past performance charts and the "dope" sheets, you have to pick Fritzie Zivic to flail the daylight out of Freddie the Red Cochrane in Madison Square Garden tonight.

While even his greatest admirers shudder to think of what might happen to the sailor boy from Jersey in the course of the ten round non-title brawl tonight, Freddie rises to remark that it's about time the boys and girls lent an ear to his theme song.

This is a take-off on a tune of the day and is entitled, "I did it before—and I can do it again. And no matter how you look at their recent efforts—Zivic's work stands out over Red's like the circus fat lady overshadowed the mid-get—you have to admit that Freddie might have something there. It is possible he could prove it to the expected assemblage of 13,000 tonight.

It was just about 14 months ago that Cochrane was supposed to roll over and play dead for Fritzie in a ring over in Newbury. But Freddie wound up by taking the world welterweight championship away from Zivic, And, make no mistakes about it—he was the winner that night fairly and squarely, with no hocus-pocus involved.

On that occasion, Zivic was a 1 to 2 favorite, and there were no takers. Tonight Fritzie will be 1 to 2.

This corner tabs Fritzie to get the revenge he's been hollering

Warren, Youngsville And Sheffield Ready For Weekend Clashes

Warren, Sheffield and Youngsville high school grid teams will seek respective victories over the weekend, the Eagles under the guidance of Coach Joe Passaro being first to take their turn tomorrow evening.

Youngsville invades Corry tomorrow night for the second fracas of the campaign for the Red and White and the season opener for the Beavers under their new coach, Ronald Putnam.

On Saturday, Coach "Lo" Eisenhauer, will field his Sheffield Wolverines in a home stand against Waterford while the Dragons appear on Russell Field in their third test of 11 on their program, meeting Girard's Yellow-Jackets here.

On the basis of their fine showing against the Blue and White forces last week, Youngsville, by all reasoning, reigns as a favorite over Corry in tomorrow evening's tilt, but the Putnam charges are set to make trouble. Last year the Eagles scored an easy 33-0 victory.

Girard, with Joe Leson gone, is a mystery team so far as the local footballers are concerned, but the play of the Leidgimen has improved immensely this week and they are expected to be able to handle their guests without unreasonable difficulty come Saturday.

At Sheffield, Eisenhauer is flipping about for more than a year. In fact, he wouldn't be much of a sock if he got it the sweetest way possible—by a knockout.

ARMY STARS TOP DETROIT LIONS, 10-0

Detroit, Sept. 10.—(P)—The Western Army All-Stars have a couple of tough customers ahead in the Green Bay Packers and New York Giants, but Major Wallace Wade's soldier footballers will be hard to dislodge from their edge in the charity series against National Pro League clubs.

The Army seized the upper hand in the series last night by employing every possible way football points can be scored to whip the Detroit Lions, 12 to 0, before 24,499 customers who paid an estimated $40,000, minus expenses, toward Army Emergency Relief. Having beaten the Chicago Cardinals after losing the opened to the Washington Redskins, the Army leads, two games to one.

Jarvin John Kimbrough, former Aggie All-America who had scored his team's previous three touchdowns, was held scoreless by the Lions, but two other Texans, sub-carried on exceptionally well in his place. Bill Couterer speared a second period touchdown pass in a 32-yard play with Kay Eakin of Arkansas and the New York Giants, and Bill Dawson booted the extra point and a fourth period field goal from behind the 12-yard line.

To round out the scoring, the Lions kicked in with a safety four minutes from the game's finish when a snaphop eluded Harry (Hippity) Hopp and rolled out of the end zone.

Three out of five game series.

Softball Series May Resume This Evening

Patience is a wonderful quality, but poor weather has tested that possessed by City Softball Leagues to the last ounce, and if they don't get another title series game played tonight, they may do something drastic.

Last night, for the second evening in a row, rain held off the scheduled third series game, and forced postponement until tonight. (Couterer-Wells) can cop the to-go with a single win, having beaten Recreation Center 11-4 and 7-5 in the first two games of the best

Chapter 24 Well-Meant Bribe

TYRA'S father didn't answer for a moment. Finally, he said slowly, "We'll have to talk to this Morse fellow. Maybe we can persuade him to wait while before going after that Rosetta-stone."

"You mean offer him a share?" I'd thought of that, too, Dad, but I'm not certain that he'd listen. He—well, you know how archaeologists are. They're just as crazy in their way as we are in ours."

"We could offer to share our supplies with him," Fleming went on. "And if all that fails we'll still got you."

Tyra's head came up. "I don't understand, Dad."

A twinkle found its way to Mr. Fleming's deep-set eyes. "Sandy Morse is in love with you, isn't he?"

Tyra said slowly, "I don't see what that has to do with it."

"If he likes you he'll want to please you, won't he?"

"Yes, but..."

"I think, between us, we can persuade him to stay, all right. We'll go over to the camp right after we have something to eat."

Tyra gazed thoughtfully into the fire. All these weeks she had loathed being suspicious of Sandy. Each day of companionship on the trail had been harder than the last, with the knowledge in her heart that she was not trusting the zealous young archaeologist. Only today she had been released from her torment, only to be plunged, it seemed, into something more disagreeable.

Use Sandy's liking for her as a club to bend his judgment? She shuddered. No, she was done with deceit. She had finished with it today.

Proposition

SANDY, Gil and Helen were seated around their fire discussing ways and means of approaching the Chamber of the Serpent God when Tyra and her father stepped out of the shadows. After some formalities of greeting the Flemings made themselves comfortable in the circle, and Mr. Fleming commented upon the events of the day as reported to him by Tyra.

He went on, "I don't mind telling you, now, that I was suspicious of you people. That's why I sent Tyra with you today."

Across the fire Sandy met Tyra's eyes. Then you went with us today—to spy on us," he said slowly, like a statement.

She answered in an oddly muffled voice, "We—had to know."

So far as Sandy was concerned they might have been alone. "I think I see, now, why you didn't want to guide us here... Dad will tell you about it."

Mr. Fleming took up the conversation. "Yes, I'll tell you, Morse. We're not botanists. That is a blind to put the people off the scent. I am a mining engineer."

Helen gasped and Sandy remarked dryly, "I'm not surprised to hear you're not botanists."

Mr. Fleming continued, "For twenty years, since Tyra was a baby, I've drifted around Mexico from one property to another, Chihuahua, Durango, Sonora. I've managed mines and prospected all through those states. Then, two-three years ago I helped open a property in the Banabana River District of Nicaragua. That was where I first heard of the Forbidden Land and what I heard made me curious to find out more. So I went to Guatemala, from the Gulf side, and was fortunate enough to talk to a party who had penetrated this country for quite a distance. Their descriptions of the geologic formations made me certain there was gold in here."

Sandy passed that over without comment. "Then I take it that you found a mine."

Mr. Fleming let his eyes rest momentarily upon each face as if to assure himself how his news would be received. "I hadn't been prospecting around this plateau a week when I ran onto a free gold pocket that's a bonanza. Frankly, I've never seen anything equal to it, in all my experience. Nuggets—well, you have to see them to believe it."

Sandy said carefully, "I noticed some of Hunac-Ceel's people wearing nuggets today."

Mr. Fleming cleared his throat and continued, "I've already panned out a nice little jump. Probably I'd have had the whole pocket cleaned up if I'd been able to work with my three Yaquis the whole time, but when I had to send two of them with Tyra for supplies, my force was cut so I haven't been able to accomplish what I was able to carry in nothing except gold pans, you see. However, we're working full strength again and we should clean up the pocket in three or four months. But here's the rub, Morse."

Fleming leaned closer. "From what Tyra tells me you plan to make your raid on that altar in spite of the warnings of the Indians. You must realize that if you do this we'll all have to leave the plateau right away."

Sandy gave a start. "I suppose that is true."

"Well, yes. Of course I didn't know about your gold mine."

Sandy glanced at Tyra to find her gazing steadily at him, her eyes like new moons with the firelight slanting up into her face.

Fleming shifted. "We don't want to be run off the plateau until we've cleaned up this pocket. So I've got a proposition to make to you, Morse. We know the Indians of that village have us under their eye all the time and we're fairly certain that as long as we keep away from that altar they'll let us alone."

"My suggestion is this: You men join Tyra and me on cleaning up this rich pocket of gold. We'll make you a fair offer—let you have all the gold you can pan out. Then when the pocket is gutted we'll all pack up and leave the plateau together. Just before we go you can make your raid on the altar and get your Rosetta-stone. In that way, we'd both have what we came up here for, only you'd have a poke of gold in addition. How does it sound to you?"

Agreed

IT SOUNDED like more delay, more frustration. With Gil and me working how long do you think it will take to clean up the pocket?" Sandy asked, choosing his words with care.

"Hard to tell exactly. Maybe two months. And of course we'll divide our supplies with you—I forgot to mention that. My Yaquis can do all the hunting, which will save time, and we can concentrate our camps in order to have one cooking unit."

"All right," Sandy said, a husky note in his voice. "We'll wait until you clean up your gold pocket. We'll put our own plan aside until then."

A curious silence followed his announcement. The faces around the fire appeared to have been cast in copper.

Mr. Fleming arose. Tyra, too, stood up. Fleming said, "Come over to our camp first thing in the morning. We'll get together on our plans, and start things moving."

Chapter 25 Sold Out?

HELEN glared across the fire at Sandy. "I knew you were crazy about her. I've known it all along, but I didn't think you'd sell out to her without even making a struggle."

Sandy felt the familiar cornered sensation. "That's strong language, Oh, I know you can't see it. Tyra has magicked you. But another woman can see how she has been using you for her own purposes!"

Sandy felt hot color rush to his face. Hot words, too, rushed to his lips. He choked them back, with an effort.

"I don't see how I could have made any other decision."

"Of course not. With Tyra wiggle her eyelashes at you and told you it was best to take her father's offer! Of course, you couldn't make any other decision for that would have offended Tyra. And that would never have done. Tyra and her father must have their bid, even if you must abandon your search for the Maya codex."

"I'm not abandoning my search, only delaying it for a time."

"You might as well be abandoning it," Helen retorted, her eyes narrowing to slits. "For—if it suits the Flemings—you'll not enter the Chamber of the Serpent God again."

The blood throbbed in Sandy's temples. "You seem to have a pretty low opinion of my integrity, Helen."

"I have a high opinion of Tyra's power over you, that's all," she flung back. "By pretending that she cares for you she can wrap you around her little finger."

Sandy interrupted sharply. "By pretending she cares..."

"Exactly." A scornful smile made its appearance upon Helen's face. "Oh, I saw how she melted in your arms that night at the camp. As pretty a piece of play-acting as I've ever seen. I knew you were completely taken. But, today, tonight, when you found out that she has always mistrusted you, from the first, I thought surely your eyes would be opened and you'd put her in her place by turning down that ridiculous offer! I hoped you would for—the sake of the whole expedition, not just yourself."

"Gold-Diggers"

"I REALIZE that you're saying a lot of things you don't mean, Helen, because you're jealous of Tyra—of our caring for each other..."

"Of course you'd think that! But if you don't believe me, ask Gil how he feels about this. You can't accuse him of jealousy!"

The woman was beside herself. Her hairish lips were firm set in a line, and a crusading light was in her eyes that Sandy did not recall ever having seen there before. He thought again that she had changed since they left Onha.

Sandy looked over at Gil—Gil the faithful. "Do you agree with the things Helen says," he asked slowly.

Gil stirred a little. "You're the head of this expedition, chief. You can do what you like. I don't intend to question your motives. Where you lead, I'll always follow."

Sandy recognized the evasion in Gil's speech. He asked, more grimly, "Do you believe the Flemings are using me for their own ends?"

Gil looked as if he'd rather be in any spot than where he was. "I don't like to say this, chief, but

TALMADGE TRAILING IN GEORGIA ELECTION
Atlanta, Sept. 10.—(P)—Appar- ently beaten back in his unprece- dented bid for a fourth term as governor of Georgia, Eugene Tal- madge today trailed far behind youthful Attorney General Ellis Arnall in nearly complete reports from yesterday's Democratic pri- mary.

Mid-morning tabulations of un- final winner in 75 counties having year-old challenger the apparent official returns showed the 35- 221 county unit votes, 15 over the majority needed for the nomina- tion that is the equivalent of elec- tion in Democratic Georgia.

At this time the 57-year-old, three-term chief executive count- ed as complete in his column only 35 counties with 79 units.

age system to the newspaper men, they made plans to open a drive in conjunction with a state-wide scrap harvest campaign.

"This drive will last three weeks and will be followed on Oct. 5 by a school salvage campaign which may run three, but which we hope we can extend until the end of the year," said Baker.

The salvage official said weekly reports would be issued on re- sults in various counties and that the drive would affect all kinds of scrap with emphasis on metal.

"The standings of the counties will be listed for publication," he explained. "There also will be competitive awards made in counties and possibly in towns and townships.

Baker said the publishers had agreed not to take over scrap col- lections, that function remaining with the 67 county and local sal- vage committees.

Jap Advance Is Admitted By M'Arthur

ment said, are battling gallantly to halt the enemy advance along a narrow trail traversing a series of ridges which still lie between the invaders and their goal.

The fighting is proceeding un- der conditions of "extraordinary hardship and difficulty," the bulle- tin added.

Allied air units were said to be playing an important role in the battle, bombing and machine-gun- ning the Japanese continually.

The brief announcement disclos- ing the Japanese advance said the invaders had successfully out- flanked Australian positions at Myola on the north side of the towering Owen Stanley range, pushed through a pass and again outflanked defenses at Elogi on the southern side of the summit, 12 miles near Port Moresby.

The invaders thus have trav- eled approximately 16 miles since they launched their push from Ko- koda several days ago and now are considerably more than halfway across the 120-mile wide arm of southeastern New Guinea.

The gap through which the Ja- panese sought their way across the summit of the Owen Stanley range is about 8,000 feet above sea level, while the elevation at Elogi is about 4,600 feet.

Budapest Is Attacked By Red Bombers

in German-occupied territory went off the air abruptly during the night.

The only overnight activity at- tributed to the RAF by the British air ministry was a bombing at- tack on a German convoy off the Dutch coast, which a commu- niqué said had resulted in one ship, the largest of the convoy, being set afire.

The regular program on the Budapest long wave band was in- terrupted shortly before 10 p. m. when a Hungarian announcer broke in with an excited "atten- tion! anti-air raid defense!"

Then followed instructions to air raid precautions groups, re- peated at brief intervals.

The attack upon Budapest was the second which the Hungarian capital has undergone since the start of the war. Russian planes bombed the city for the first time last Friday night and were re- ported to have set many fires.

There was no German aerial ac- tivity over Britain last night.

The tabulation since April 21 those Japanese shipping losses, exclusive of many landing barges destroyed and damaged:

Sunk: 3 cruisers; 1 aircraft car- rier; 2 destroyers; 3 large subma- rines; 2 destroyers; 12 transport or cargo ships; total 25.

Damaged: 4 cruisers; 1 aircraft carrier; 3 destroyers; 2 subma- rines (damaged or destroyed); 3 tankers; 5 gunboats; 23 other vessels; total 41.

Pay Increase For Britain's Armed Forces

Allowances for officers' depen- dents were raised on a similar scale. However, members of Brit- ain's armed forces still will be among the world's lowest paid.

Cripps referred to the high wages paid American soldiers.

The disparity in pay between United States and British soldiers was put before the house of com- mons today in a debate on service pay and allowances.

Local Board No. 1 was com- pleting arrangements today with Struthers-Wells band to be present and play during the time the men arrive at the station until they board the train which will take them to their army reception center.

Germans Pay Large Toll In Drive On Great Volga City been broken and routed with the annihilation of more than 70 per cent of their effectives from May 1 through August.

The statement promised every invader "a bullet and two yards of earth," and despite the crisis engulfing the Red armies at Stal- ingrad, it declared confidently:

"The time is not long ahead when the remainder of the Hitler- istic divisions and those of his vas- sals will meet the same end."

Soviet withdrawals west of Stal- ingrad were described as orderly, carried out under attack by end- less waves of German bombers, and there was no suggestion of a major Nazi break through.

In the western Caucasus, the Soviet command reported the slaughter of more than 1,000 Ger- mans but acknowledged that the invaders "broke into the north- western outskirts" of Novoross- isk, Russian Black Sea naval base, which the Nazis claimed to have captured Sunday.

In the central Caucasus, the Russians declared they had wiped out several new German crossings of the Terek river, about 50 miles north of the Grozny oil fields, and driven the enemy survivors back to the river's edge in some places.

Two companies of Soviet Alpine troops trapped a force of Germans advancing through a valley, dis- patched to Red Star said, and moved them down with machine- guns and automatic rifles.

While Russian soldiers battled to save their homeland, Soviet war- planes kept the Allied aerial offen- sive in Europe rolling by attacks on eastern Germany and the Hun- garian capital of Budapest.

DNB, the German news agency, said Russian planes also "flew over the outskirts of greater Ber- lin last night," but declared the raiders "did not drop any bombs in the center of the city."

The RAF's only night activity reported by the British air min- istry was an attack on a German convoy off the Dutch coast, in which a large ship was left in flames. No German planes raided the British Isles.

Report Made By Probers Far- Reaching
(From Page One)
2. That the average annual mil- age per car be held to approxi- mately 5,000 miles, and this to be permitted only for "necessary driving."

3. That more rubber be released to the public through recapping old tires, or the issuance of new ones, so as to maintain fully neces- sary civilian driving.

4. That a new gasoline ration- ing system be devised to save tires, based on 5,000 miles a year of driving per car.

5. That "the restrictions as to gasoline and mileage be national in their application."

6. That compulsory periodic tire inspections be instituted.

7. That a voluntary tire con- servation program be put into effect pending establishment of gas rationing, which the committee said was "the only way of saving rub- ber."

The committee, appointed on August 6, consisted of Bernard M. Baruch, who was chairman of the War Industries Board in the last war; Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard University, and Dr. Karl F. Compton, presi- dent of Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

a full discussion of all controversial points. That might signify lengthy debate, for a senator may talk as long as he wishes unless the cloture rule is invoked by a two-thirds vote.

There also were reports that some senators might welcome a showdown, to determine just how the law he asked for was not on the books by the first of next month.

In the house, Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) suggested a simple, joint congressional resolution which would empower the president to stabilize "everything" entering into the cost of living.

On one point, there appeared to be a general accord: across the house aisle separating the Demo- cratic and Republican members echoed cries for swift action.

Reserve Men Facing Call Into Service

ular army reserve, enlisted reserve corps and the National Guard of the United States, who have been deferred because of dependency, would be called to active duty in October and November, as provi- sion has been made by congress to pay allotments to dependents.

Other enlisted reservists defer- red will be honorably discharged from the reserve as of December 31 and made responsible to the se- lective service.

Fifth Column Is Blamed For Indian Rioting

The prime minister said the principles of the government's declaration—basically, dominion status—which formed the basis of Sir Stafford Cripps' mission to In- dia "must be taken as represent- ing the settled policy" of Britain.

"Mohandas Gandhi and his fol- lowers will be kept out of harm's way until she troubles subside," the prime minister said.
